ResponseID Response

12	Very passionate about her subject
13	Marion covered a lot of ground and raised thought provoking content
17	Had my full attention the whole time. Able to relate what was said to my own family learning experiences.
22	Interesting and informative
26	I enjoyed Marion's input but felt it didn't take account of the fact that not everyone in the room was from a CLD background.
28	I missed the start of her input due to a workshop overrunning.
30	very interesting

ResponseID Response

12	Entertaining and informative - thought provoking
13	David was very straight to the point in an interesting and engaging way and gave lots of opportunity to hear our thoughts and opinions
17	Was very entertaining. Again what was said was relevant however a lot of information to take in within the time scale. Felt audience participation was balanced. Interesting to hear about GIRFEC. I felt it was still our main priority in the job I do and I always strive to get it right but appreciate we don't always.
22	Interesting, informative and thought provoking
23	Excellent speaker. This is the 2nd time I have seen David and it's a pleasure to watch and listen to him. Very engaging and thought provoking speaker.
26	David is always energetic and engaging - never tire listening to him and he was a draw for my attendance at the conference.
28	Very engaging and thought-provoking.
30	Was educational whilst being entertaining at the same time.
33	Sorry I missed this talk

brilliant workshop
approaches approach adults
delivered delighted children budget

ResponseID Response

12	Very useful in our approaches to work with both adults and children
13	Did not particularly get much from this workshop, don't feel I am any more aware of what the Solihull approach is, what benefits it brings and how to bring this into practice
15	This was brilliant really interesting would like more in-depth.
16	very interesting workshop - didn't talk about family learning at all but still worthwhile
17	Interested to hear about family Learning opportunities within the prison. This was a valuable experience and I was delighted to hear that this was going on. Great to hear about all the services working together to promote positive experiences for families.
20	Very informative but would have liked more time to look at the resources.
22	Interesting discussions
23	Good and interesting workshop. It's difficult though when products are for sale and there is no budget to purchase them.
25	The session was interesting and informative.
26	interesting - not sure how much it would impact on a school rather than a nursery setting
28	This was a really interesting workshop and made me consider whether this is something we might implement in our school.
29	great to hear the great work that goes on in relation to families and prisoners
30	I delivered this workshop - it was very well attended and from what I was told, everyone found it very interesting! It would be good to get people's feedback on this :)
31	PEEP have forwarded on further information from the event which has been useful.
33	Excellent, really thought provoking and lots of space to share ideas
35	Excellent workshop. Enjoyed the scenario exercise

ResponseID Response

12	Slightly rushed due to time constraints, but gave a good insight into the programme - it also fitted well with the theme of the day
13	I really enjoyed this workshop. There was a nice number in the group and we all engaged in nice discussion. The group leader brought resources for us to refer to, and deepened our understanding to a great extent using many good methods
16	Would have liked longer, presentation was good but not much time to discuss.
17	This was very interesting, interactive and really made you think. I felt this workshop was time restricted as I would have liked to hear more but their time was cut short. Presenters were enthusiastic and welcomed involvement from all.
20	Again very informative. Will be contacting to find out more.
22	Interesting and informative
23	Very interesting and has led to me putting my name forward to take part in this training.
25	The session was excellent, and we hope to use this service in Angus as a result of attending the workshop.
26	I really enjoyed this - would be interested in whether it is do-able in PKC
28	It was thought-provoking but I would have preferred to hear a lot more about good practice in other schools.
29	fun interactive session interesting
30	I enjoyed this as infant massage is not something that is run in Dundee. Hopefully there will be opportunities for this to happen in the future.
31	Would this be a consideration for P&K to invest in in the future to further support families through schools?
32	Slightly disappointed in this as I was hoping good practice was going to be shared in terms of how to reduce the cost of the school day and this wasn't the case. Workshop focused more on cost of living and working out cost of day which most schools have already done.
33	I delivered the Speakeasy workshop
34	Thought provoking - promoted a lot of discussion
35	Facilitated this workshop along with Mandy Macewan

13. What was good about the event?

ResponseID Response

12	Being able to discuss issues with colleagues from different councils
13	The variety of workshops and the structure of the day. Also liked the format of the display board and being able to explore these at our leisure
14	The chance to network with others.
15	Really enjoyed the workshops and speakers. Great to meet other people from different agencies. Really looking forward to the next one.
16	coming together with like minded people and hearing whats going on in other local authorities as well as nationally
17	Meeting all professionals and discussing best practice sharing ideas. Finding out what other services are available throughout the authorities.
20	Well organised and many of the workshops relevant to my role.
21	Good at finding out what other professional are doing within Family Learning.
22	Good opportunities for networking and discussions with colleagues from other sectors.
23	Good venue, good range of workshops and speakers.
25	Opportunities to learn of other areas of good practice and the benefits it can bring.
26	Workshops, venue good. Interesting range of perspectives
28	Excellent choice of workshops. I would have liked to have been able to attend more than 2.
29	very well organised welcoming
30	It was well planned and the staff were always ensuring everything was running smoothly and on time.
31	Opportunity to engage in professional dialogue with partner workers who are outwith education but also supporting families.
33	Venue, variety of workshops, meeting other professionals
34	Networking - hearing about projects and approaches in other authorities.
35	Workshops not too long and key note speakers were excellent
36	The workshops were good and varied

14. What would make it better?

ResponseID Response

12 Half day events are often more appealing than full day

13 I'm new to events like this so I'm not really sure. Was a good first experience

14 Organised that you select work shops before the event.

16 more frequent opportunities to get together and more sharing of good practice

17 I thoroughly enjoyed participating in this event and valued this experience. Thank you

20 To have been able to go to more of the workshops.

21 Hearing the various p[rojects and the imp[act it is making in the community.

22 N/A

23 Less workshops where you are being encouraged to purchase a product.

25 The information stands being in a more accessible place in order to encourage more people to look at and use the information displayed.

26 More notice

28 Presentations in the morning and workshops later in the day.

30 N/A

31 Opportunity to attend more workshops as I was interested in a couple form the morning session.

33 N/A

34 Thought it was great.

15. What difference will it make to your practice?

amended training children opportunities 3rd child workshop families areas working access approaches colleagues activities school family day relation cost clarify support learning community closely

ResponseID Response

12	We are looking at new approaches to family learning
13	Have a better understanding of what family learning is and how it fits in the wider community
15	Really makes you think more in-depth.
16	it gave me lots of food for thought - I will be having more conversations with colleagues across fife. I am also planning visits to some of the projects who presented to find out how to better support families im working with
17	I will look more closely at GIRFEC to ensure I am not only trying to get it right for the child but for families too. I will think about setting achievable goals not only for families but myself included. I will continue to provide family learning opportunities for all the families within my setting ensuring all are included.
20	Has helped to clarify my thinking in terms of how we work with colleagues in Education, 3rd Sector and Heath in relation to the children and families that we support.
21	Opportunities of trying something different.
23	New ideas for approaches and activities. Access to training to improve and develop practice.
25	I hope to use one of the services showcased in the workshop in our LA.
26	family learning
28	Considering whole school approaches, minimising cost of the school day.
30	The feedback I eventually get back from the workshop I delivered will give me and overview of what areas can be improved and/or amended. Looking forward to hearing about the feedback.
31	More informed to now consider how we move forward within our own context.
33	My project was promoted through workshop and I met some useful people in relation to partnership working
34	Consider embedding cost of school day information in to training I deliver.
36	Increase knowledge of programmes and practise in other Scottish areas
