

COMMUNITIES AND VOLUNTEERING

What are the key "takeaways" from today's session?

Lots of amazing work going on out there

Paul's talk on the range of services provided.

Communities have the answers

Local is powerful.

Organic volunteering recruitment Intersection with cld

How other service support their volunteers

Connect more with Volunteer Scotland and other partners

Get to know more in-depth about community development

What are the key "takeaways" from today's session?

The organic approach to volunteering, specifically around Ferguslie Park! Brilliant work, great pathway for volunteers and would love to follow up and learn from Paul

The decrease in volunteer satisfaction is something we need to take note of and take action on.

Great ideas and sharing of organisations and resources I wasn't aware of

Listening to everyone experiencing

Lots of information, common issues across the board - collective work is key with our communities

Great collaboration leads to a better impact. Lovely to see that we are all heading in the same direction. Some super ideas and take aways

Hearing practical examples

Great talks today

What are the key "takeaways" from today's session?

Hearing the range of volunteer recruitment approaches and work going on.

The ways a lot of organisations can work together
The model at Ferguslie Park
The benefit of Sistema which has great input for those experiencing poverty

The importance of volunteering the impact of volunteering for both volunteers and their communities - the amount of similar work going on in other areas so perhaps looking at ways to share that inform

Network sharing inspiration thanks

What, if anything, are you going to change or do differently after today's event?

Looking at "job descriptions" for volunteers to help with blurring of lines

Consider the wide variety of ways poverty can affect volunteers and understand how to best support them.

Networking

Access resources discussed.

How, as a national organisation, be more grass-roots
Join CLD

Get my volunteers better trained

Continue my learning, and keep myself up to date.

Have a look at volunteer pathway we currently have and expand it! Be more relaxed and open to volunteer opportunities

What, if anything, are you going to change or do differently after today's event?

Networking, getting best practices and support from other organisations

Do some deep dive on the number of links shared to continue my own learning

Involve more music projects at events

Ensure volunteers are satisfied and don't feel like they are doing a staff role.

Link my work to local projects.

Three 3 words to describe today's event

49 responses

COMMUNITIES AND VOLUNTEERING

COMMUNITIES AND VOLUNTEERING

