

North Alliance Conference 2014

Resilience in a time of austerity

Fiona Ballantyne

Chairperson, Scottish Community Development Network

How can community development ensure a process, rather than deficit, approach to community resilience? How can we develop accountable local leadership? Can we really develop community empowerment without an analysis of the power structures which impact on the quality of community life? This workshop discussed these central issues in relation to community development practice in the current policy context.

Please click here for a copy of the presentation.