

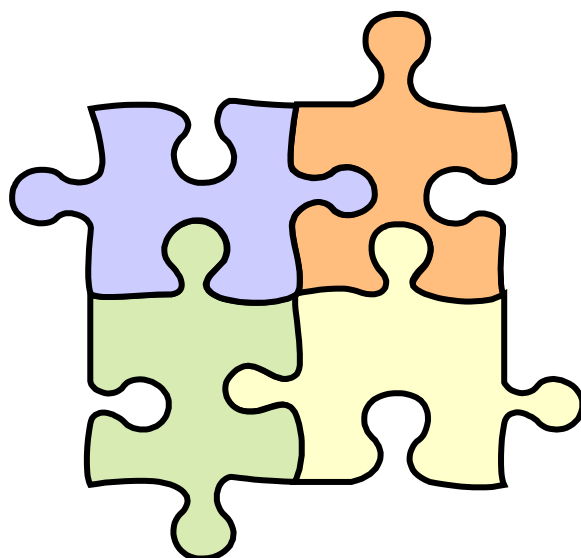

Mapping Adult Education in Scotland – hills and glens, roads and pathways

Strategic Forum for Adult Learning
Professional Learning Working Group

Join us to launch our report into professional learning opportunities for adult educators in Scotland. The details are as follows:

Iris Murdoch Building at Stirling University, Stirling FK9 4LA

on Thursday 27th September from 12.30-15.30 starting with lunch

For information on how to get there follow this link: Getting here

We will launch the report and consult with you to complete the jigsaw of adult learning in Scotland. Our speakers include Diane Gardner, City of Glasgow College, other speakers will be join her to introduce activities to map out our journey forward.

Certificates of attendance will be available after the event to contribute towards your professional learning record.

To register for the event follow this link: Mapping Adult Education September 2018